Chance Koloch and Randy Cordell were asked to attend the meeting by Mayor Gene Rosholt in regards to unkempt buildings on their properties. Randy Cordell plans on completely refurbishing the building on his rental property and anticipates it to be completed with the next 2 – 3 weeks. The refurbishing on Chance Koloch's building is a long term project. In the meantime, the council asked that he at least clean up the area the building and install a door and a fresh coat of paint.

Dan Fuglesten, manager of Central Valley Bean, talked to the council in regards Central Valley Bean's plan of installing drain tile on their 40 acres of land. A culvert will be placed on the Buxton Township road by Bjerke Brothers as well as the pumping station. Dan Fuglesten asked for the city's approval of the installation of the culvert and once complete if they would place gravel on Valiant Street. He would like to encourage people to use the outside gravel road for when the road is blocked by a train to minimize general wear and tear and safety hazards to his employees. Travis Soderberg made a motion to approve Central Valley Bean installing a culvert on the Buxton Township road and the placing of gravel on Valiant Street. Travis Hegg seconded the motion; motion passed unanimous.

Mike Bibow with AE2S discussed an opportunity for a loan interest loan with the council. The Bank of North Dakota is now accepting applications for BND Infrastructure Revolving Loan Fund. Funding amounts will be awarded by July 31, 2019. Travis Soderberg made a motion for AE2S to proceed with the application for the BND Infrastructure Revolving Loan Fund; Jeff Siewert seconded the motion; motion passed unanimous.

Dennis Riedhammer, a masonry contractor, is planning on re-furbishing the old hardware store on Broadway. His plans are to salvage as much of the original building as he can, replacing the roof and adding a shop on the back of the building.

The council discussed several issues that came up during the city's spring clean-up this year. They are going to review the ideas of having additional roll-offs during the spring and/or a spring and fall clean-up.

Ben Hershey volunteered to plant flowers in the old city sign location before the Big Day weekend.

Jeff Siewert made a motion to adjourn the meeting; Keaton Flanagan seconded the motion; motion passed unanimous.
